Employers' concern over the legalization of cannabis for recreational use in Illinois is growing.

This new, three-hour, information-packed seminar provides an overview of the new Illinois Cannabis Law and its impact for health and safety on the workforce.

- Gain a better understanding of marijuana, its consumption methods, and its impact on the mind and body.
- Learn what testing reveals about how long marijuana remains in the bloodstream and effects cognitive and physical performance.
- Discover indicators of drug use while on the job.
- Review the Illinois Cannabis Law and its impact on pre-employment drug testing and procedures for Reasonable Suspicion Documentation.
- Explore various options for employer drug-free workplace policies and best practices.
